

Directors and boards of nonprofits and charities face complex legal and administrative matters daily: Sign a contract? Rent or buy? Terminate an employee? Comply with privacy legislation? Without full knowledge of the legal implications of all their choices, it is difficult to make an informed or appropriate decision. Nonprofits and charities, often faced with limited resources, need professional legal advice.

Take the 10-Point Legal Health Checkup

Volunteer Lawyers Service (VLS), the leading pro bono business law resource since 1994, offers free legal advice and representation to eligible charities and nonprofits in Ontario. Free legal advice is available on a broad range of business law issues including incorporation and charitable status, employment and labour law, contracts and agreements, leases and board governance.

VLS also provides free or low cost legal education on a variety of charitable and nonprofit business law topics through a timely seminar series.

For more information:

Phone (416) 977-4448, ext. 226 or www.volunteerlawyers.org

Volunteer Lawyers Service is a Pro Bono Law Ontario project funded by The Law Foundation of Ontario.